ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL FALL FESTIVAL FOR 2015

A big "Texas Thank You" to all our friends and neighbors who came out to support our Annual Fall Festival at St Jude's Catholic Church. We are blessed to live in such a caring and supportive community as Burkburnett! Thanks to the following who generously donated toward the prizes of our drawing and Silent Auction: The Daniella Nix Family, Scott's Shots, Fidelity Bank, Union Square Bank, Hayes Home & Auto Store, Sign-On, Red River Creek Golf Course and the many Silent Auction donors. To our many parishioners who volunteered and worked hard to help make it a success and last but not least Greg & Debbie Leonard and their hard-working kitchen crew who make the task of feeding a community look easy and still have fun! 50 years ago, a small group of Catholics in this area needed a place to worship. They got together and organized spaghetti dinners, German style dinners, turkey dinners, bake sales, Bingo to raise money. Most of these pioneering Catholics have passed on, but we are still grateful to have Leroy Lay, Dean & Lee Rivard still with us. The ones who went before us left us a legacy to continue working together to make sure St Jude is ready for the future of our children and grandchildren's Catholic education! Next week we should be close to having a final amount that we made at our 50th Annual Fall Festival. Again thank you to all those involved.

Bill & Hilda McGuire 2015 Fall Festival Committee

JESUIT NOVITIATE NEWS

The nine first year novices begin their 30 Day Retreat on Saturday, October 31st. Father Paul sent an email asking our St. Jude Parish to send cards of encouragement for these young men. As Ian Peoples is from St. Jude's –Father Paul thought you all might want to send a card. It is his understanding that the card should be supporting all the novices not just Ian. And yet, it could be from the St. Jude Thaddeus community. This is a source of consolation and encouragement for the guys, especially on rough days. Here is the address:
